

Pre-Conference Workshop

Interpreters with Deaf Parents, a Member Section of RID Proudly Presents

Effective Team Interpreting:

Working our way through the styles, philosophies, and attitudes

Led by: Betty Colonomos

Wednesday, August 11th 1pm-9pm &
Thursday, August 12th, 9am-1pm

Albany Marriott (Region I conference hotel), Albany, NY

This 10 hour (1.0 CEU) workshop will focus on the challenges involved when working with a team. If you were similarly trained or share similar models, it is more likely you will have a satisfactory experience. If you are working with someone who differs from your approach and beliefs, what types of decisions need to be made? If you are working at a conference with a large team of interpreters who you may or may not know or have worked with before, what options are available?

Participants and presenter will be actively involved in working groups and larger group discussion in an effort to help find answers and offer strategies for resolution. Scenarios will help practice and evaluate certain strategies. Group development of a matrix of factors may assist agencies in assigning team members.

This workshop is open to all interpreters. Deaf, hearing, deaf parented or not. Workshop presented in both English and ASL. Interpretation provided for English to ASL but not for ASL to English.
